INJURED IN A DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

TWO MEN DANGEROUSLY HURT ON A SCOW—A CARTRIDGE HAD BEEN LEFT AMONG THE STONES.

Two laborers at work on a scow on the Harlem Ship Canal were injured dangerously by the accidental explosion of a dynamite cartridge yesterday morning. They were John Boardman, thirty years old, of Canal-st., Spayten Duvell, and Richard Senapp, twenty-nine years old, of the Albany Post Road. The men were cracking stones on the scow, which had been removed from the canal, and one of them struck a dynamite cartridge which had failed to explode in a blast and had got among the stones by accident. The cartridge was exploded by the blow, and the force of the explosion nearly wrecked the scow. Boardman's legs and arms were cut and bruised, and his eyes were injured so seriously that he probably will be blind. If he does not die, Senapp was cut badly, and fragments of stone entered his abdomen. His injuries were believed to be fatal. Both men were removed to the Fordham Hospital.

Overcoats for little fellows and big ones too—but ulsters to-day.

For small fry, 3 to 8 years, hood or cape ulsters, $4, $5, and $6—by the way cut down last week from $7, $8, and $10. As the boy gets older you pay more of course, but it's always money's worth or money back.

Small men and large boys, $18 up; larger men, $20 up. This is enough for a tough warm ulster, add as much fineness as you want to pay for. The lightest, warmest, finest ulster we know of is our soft beaver at $40.

Money back—big man, small boy—if you want it.
